

Agenda

12.30–13.15	Registration and lunch
13.15–13.25	Welcome and introduction	Professor Alison Petch, Chair Dunhill Medical Trust
13.25–14.15	Delivering housing policy solutions for healthier later lives	Sir David Pearson, Chair of Technology Enabled Care (TEC) Quality and Professor Roy Sandbach OBE, Chair of the Technology for our Ageing Population: Panel for Innovation (TAPPI)
14.15–14.35	Improving the quality of later life through research-led product and service development	Dr Rachel Carey, Chief Scientist Zinc
14.35–15.00	5-minute fellowships	TBC – selected from submitted abstracts
15.00–15.20	Break and refreshments
15.20–15.40	Intergenerational linking through the Care Home Friends & Neighbours framework	Sarah Allport, Head of Communities and Governance, Dunhill Medical Trust
15.40–16.10	Addressing social inequalities through housing: the almshouse longevity project	Alison Benzmira, Head of Research and Influence, United St Saviour's Charity and Dr David Smith, City, University of London
16.10–16.50	Creating age-friendly communities and living environments: the importance of co-production and community involvement	A conversation with the ‘Co-creating age- friendly social housing’ and ‘Developing age-friendly communities Salford’ project teams, facilitated by Matthew Winn, National Advisor on Community Health, NHS England
16.50–17.00	Closing remarks	Susan Kay, Chief Executive Dunhill Medical Trust
17.00–18.00	Drinks and networking	