Guidance on our research principles

Your statement should set out the nominee's commitment to our key principles for ageing-related research. The bullet-points below outline our key principles to help guide you:

- Capacity building, mentoring and research culture

You should describe and evidence the nominee's commitment / contribution to capacity building and/or mentoring in ageing-related research, and how they have meaningfully contributed to building a positive research culture.

Please try to provide specific examples of the nominee's contribution and explain what difference this has made (e.g. on other researchers, the field and/or more widely).

- Patient, carer and/or Public Involvement and Engagement (PPIE)

For this aspect, you may wish to refer to the UK Standards for Public Involvement, a framework for what good public involvement in research looks like.

Please try to provide specific examples of how the nominee has meaningfully promoted PPIE in ageing-related research, explaining the difference this has made (e.g. to their research or that of other researchers, the field and/or more widely).

- Equity, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI)

The principles of EDI can include issues related to the characteristics that the Equality Act 2010 protects, as well other characteristics such as socio-economic status, geographical location etc.

Please try to provide specific examples of how the nominee has meaningfully promoted EDI in ageing-related research, explaining the difference this has made (e.g. to their research or that of other researchers, the field and/or more widely).

Secunder letter

Please upload a statement from a seconder for the nomination (this cannot be the nominee), in the following format:

- A letter addressed to the Trust's Grants Team, the main body of which should be no more than 500 words. Your seconder may include hyperlinks to examples of the nominee's work if they wish.

- Is either a Word document or PDF.

Your seconder's statement should briefly explain any connection they have with the nominee (e.g. any current or prior work they have done together etc.) and why they are supporting this nomination.
